Airline Services for Albany Flyers

Albany itself is served by Albany International Airport (ALB), which is the closest major airport for passengers in the Capital Region. Singapore Airlines does not have dedicated counters or operations at ALB; passengers travelling with Singapore Airlines typically:

- Fly via a major U.S. gateway such as JFK (New York), EWR (Newark), or IAD (Dulles)

- Connect from Albany to these gateway cities and then onward on Singapore Airlines flights

For flight schedules, check the Singapore Airlines website or contact reservations in advance for best routing options from ALB through a U.S. hub.
